

Darryl Parker is the Manager of RPA and Accounting Automation Services at F.H. Black & Company Incorporated. For over 13 years he has provided technical consultation and training to hundreds of finance departments across North America. As a computer programmer and a designated CPA he is uniquely qualified to identify inefficiencies in business process and apply technological resolutions.